

LAW/MEDICAL
Article Test (11)

Choose the correct answer

1. A pleading titled “Smith v. Jones, et al.” indicates:
 - (A) More than one Jones
 - (B) More than one defendant
 - (C) Unknown defendants
 - (D) Anonymous defendants

2. A person cannot be punished for a crime if he can prove that at the time of the commission of the crime he was:
 - (A) Intoxicated
 - (B) Psychopathic
 - (C) Legally insane
 - (D) Suffering from a tendency to commit prohibited acts

3. Bail is set chiefly to:
 - (A) Permit the accused freedom of movement pending the actual hearing of the case
 - (B) Increase the revenue of the court
 - (C) Encourage rehabilitation of criminals pending trial
 - (D) Give the prosecuting attorney time to prepare a case against the accused

4. The abbreviation “et seq.” Means:
 - (A) And others
 - (B) And the following
 - (C) Below
 - (D) And sequins

5. Arraignment is best defined as:
 - (A) The placing of the accused in custody
 - (B) The opportunity of giving bail
 - (C) The calling of the accused before the court to answer a charge
 - (D) The justification for an arrest

6. When one or more facts is communicated to the court and jury by a witness who has actual knowledge of such facts by means of his senses, such evidence would be best described as:
 - (A) Circumstantial
 - (B) Hearsay
 - (C) Direct
 - (D) Cumulative

7. The procuring of another person to commit perjury is known as:
 - (A) Compounding a crime
 - (B) Subordination
 - (C) Accessory
 - (D) Perjury

8. A codicil is a supplement to a:
- (A) Will
 - (B) Deed
 - (C) Bailment
 - (D) Decree
9. When the court follows previous law on a subject, the principle involved is:
- (A) Res ipsa loquitur
 - (B) Quantum meruit
 - (C) Stare decisis
 - (D) Respondeat superior
10. ad inifinitum:
- (A) Senseless
 - (B) Careless
 - (C) Harmless
 - (D) Endless
11. ad litem:
- (A) Pending the outcome
 - (B) Pending the verdict
 - (C) Pending the suit
 - (D) Pending the court
12. prima facie:
- (A) As a matter of form
 - (B) The most important issue
 - (C) On the first view
 - (D) The first in time
13. res judicata:
- (A) Previously erroneously stated
 - (B) Mistakenly demonstrated earlier
 - (C) Subjectively interpreted later
 - (D) Already judicially decided
14. In flagrante delicto:
- (A) In the act of denying guilt
 - (B) In the act of defending himself
 - (C) In the act of committing the offense
 - (D) In the act of accusing another
15. Leukocyte, chlorophyll, and erythema are terms derived from:
- (A) Color
 - (B) Number
 - (C) Skeletal feature
 - (D) Location

16. Olfactory pertains to:

- (A) Smell
- (B) Hearing
- (C) Touch
- (D) Taste

17. Infarction is a term most likely to be encountered in the testimony of a (an):

- (A) Pediatrician
- (B) Gynecologist
- (C) Orthopaedist
- (D) Cardiologist

18. A hemorrhagic discoloration, "black and blue," in or beneath the skin, generally caused by bruising, is called:

- (A) Ecchymosis
- (B) Necrosis
- (C) Stenosis
- (D) Supination

19. The patella pertains to the:

- (A) Foot
- (B) Knee
- (C) Sacrum
- (D) Rib

20. The words "tibial," "femoral," and "radial" are:

- (A) Plural
- (B) Adverbial
- (C) Feminine
- (D) Adjectival