

Pigs, Hogs, and Other Swine
Article Test No. 20

Match the number with the corresponding letter

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 1. tusking | A. a mature male hog |
| 2. open sow | B. parasitical worms, like tapeworms or pinworms |
| 3. barrow | C. a pregnant sow or gilt |
| 4. foot rot | D. a pregnant sow |
| 5. ascarids | E. removing the tusks of the boar |
| 6. tripe | F. the whiskers on a pig's chin |
| 7. ranting | G. an undersized pig |
| 8. boar | H. a mature female hog with record of one or more litters |
| 9. farrow | I. a male pig castrated before reaching maturity |
| 10. chin tassels | J. small back toes high up behind cloven hooves |
| 11. tankage | K. wild hogs |
| 12. piggy sow | L. fried hog intestines |
| 13. creep | M. an unbred sow, not "in pig." |
| 14. chitterlings | N. fenced-in eating place for baby pigs |
| 15. tail docking | O. ulcer in the foot of a pig |
| 16. razorbacks | P. feed made from bones, tendons, other animal parts |
| 17. "in pig" | Q. behaviour of agitated boar, frothing, champing, nervousness |
| 18. sow | R. stomach tissue used as food |
| 19. dewclaws | S. to give birth to pigs |
| 20. runt | T. cutting off part or all of a pig's tail so other pigs won't cause painful wounds by chewing the tail off |