

WORD ASSOCIATION
Article Test (2)

Advise if the sentence is correct as written. If not, insert the correct word.

1. What effect did that have on you?
2. The prospective tenant was eager to move in.
3. I have a very impressive exercise regiment.
4. My counsel is on council for his association.
5. She was in the throws of passion when the telephone rang.
6. He was involved with elicit drugs; she was to.
7. I here what you are saying, but it's a mute point.
8. There was a great sale down at the store, especially in Isle 6.
9. Could you pair that apple for me, please, as I'm in too much pane.
10. The maid made the bed perfectly. That's acclaim to fame of hers.
11. I'm very much effected by your powerful speech.
12. The nursing aid was a compassionate woman.
13. Their going to specialize in pain management.
14. He was trying to allude the police by hiding in the abandoned house.
15. What's your prospective on that issue?
16. That old woman was using a hearing aide.
17. The principal reason for suing that man was the fact he was selling his wears illegally.
18. She was bear naked when I saw her standing at the window.
19. He paid down the principle on his mortgage.
20. That movie had an amazing affect on her.